WOOW FAMILY LOYALTY PROGRAM POLICY

Introduction

At WooW Canada, we value our clients and strive to offer continued support as they navigate their immigration journey. The WooW Family Loyalty Program is designed to provide additional benefits to clients who choose to engage our services for a second time. By participating in this program, clients can enjoy discounts on subsequent services, demonstrating our commitment to building long-term relationships.

This policy outlines the terms and conditions of the WooW Family Loyalty Program. By using the discount codes associated with this program, clients agree to the terms outlined below.

The WooW Family Loyalty Program's discounts are specifically designed to apply to a "second service" that clients engage with WooW Canada after their initial service. A "second service" refers to any subsequent immigration-related service that a client chooses to pursue with WooW Canada after completing their first service.

For example:

- After successfully obtaining a Post-Graduation Work Permit (PGWP) through WooW Canada, a client may choose to apply for Permanent Residency (PR). In this case, the 5% discount can be applied to the PR service.
- Similarly, after securing PR, a client may wish to apply for Canadian Citizenship or pursue family reunification services. The 5% discount can be applied to these subsequent services as well.

The basic 5% discount is the most common type available and is offered to all clients who have signed a retainer with WooW Canada. It is important to note that the discount is only applicable to the next service following the initial one and cannot be applied retroactively or combined with other services.

Sharing the Promo Codes:

- Standard Promo Code: This code can be shared with both relatives and friends of the original client. For those who receive the shared promo code, it can be applied to their first service with WooW Canada.
- Extended Promo Code: This code is more exclusive and can only be shared with relatives of the original client. Similarly, it can be used by the recipient for their first service with WooW Canada.

This flexibility allows clients to extend the benefits of the WooW Family Loyalty Program to their loved ones, even if they are engaging with WooW Canada for the first time.
